The Satoyama Initiative

- A global effort to realize “societies in harmony with nature” through mainstreaming biodiversity into production landscapes and seascapes.
- Promotes sustainably managed production landscapes and seascapes all over the world (Socio-ecological Production Landscapes and Seascapes (SEPLS)).
Socio-ecological Production Landscapes and Seascapes (SEPLS) are found around the world.

- Spain (Dehesa)
- Cambodia (Srair-Chamkar)
- Malawi (Chitemene)
- Korea (Mauel)
- Japan (Satoyama)
- Philippines (Muyong)

- Both inside and outside protected areas
International Partnership for the Satoyama Initiative (IPSI)

- In order to facilitate and accelerate the activities for the Satoyama Initiatives and for SEPLS
- Launched during CBD COP 10 in October 2010
- 164 members as of October 2014

- Diversity of the partners and their activities
- Provides a platform for sharing knowledge and fostering synergies
Thank You very much!!
